Vp Control Program – Bill of Lading

From May 1 – October 1, precautions must be taken to reduce the risk of Vp contamination. Proper controls during harvest and delivery complement controls that processors have in their Quality Management Program (QMP) plan. The BC Shellfish Growers Association recommends the information recorded on this Bill of Lading be collected.
Farmer Information
This Bill of Lading contains	Bill of Lading #
information that should accompany all shipments of live oysters destined for raw consumption.		Harvest Date		(DD/N	MM/Y	۷۱		1	/
		Company Name		(00/1	VIIVI/ I	'')		/	/
		Supervisor Name
		Harvest Site
		(descriptive nam		Hamisah Auri
	Land File #		Harvest Area
Product Type and Quantity
		Product Size (cir		Р	XS	S		M	L		Other
		Number of each	Size
Pre-harvest Control
 Samples used for Vp testi 	Harvest Area Sta	☐ Open for Marine Biotoxins should accurately represent the				☐ Open for Sanitary harvested product; e.g., I	Date of Last			1 1 / / / / /	1		,	, depth, handling methods.		Thermometer C	alibration	(DD/MM/YY) /			/	/ /
		Vp Level at Harv	est Site	MPN/gm
		Date of Last Vp :	Sample	le (DD/MM/YY) / /
Harvest Practice
Oysters should only be harvested		Location of Harvest		☐ Submerged Intertidal Site from sites with a predictable level				☐ Deepwater Site of Vp.		Depth of Deepwater Site		0 > 5 m 5+ > 1			10 m 10+ > 15 m 15+ m				+ m
 Harvest oysters while still 		(Circle – if applicable)
submerged on a falling tide.		Duration at Dep
Harvest Information
Time and temperature are critical		Harvest: Time o	- to minimizing potential Vp levels.		Harvest: Meat T	°C
 When harvesting from 		Harvest: Air Tem	°C submerged intertidal sites and		Time to Chilling deepwater sites, the harvest time		Chilling Technique		☐ Ice + Insulated Totes out of water, temperature of			☐ Ref			efrigerated Truck oyster meat at harvest ar					☐ Other temperature must be recorded.
Temperature Control Information (Processing Plant)
	Time of Receipt	AM PM
	Meat Temperature on		°C
	Receipt
	Method of Temp Control		☐ Plant Refrigeration
					Reefer Container
				☐ Insulated Totes
Other Certification
Harvester Name (print)	ignature Receiver I		Name (print)			Receiver Signature						